

Dear friends,

We are writing to introduce the Middlebury-Monterey Summer Intensive College English program. The program will be held June 28, 2012 to August 1, 2012 on the campus of Salve Regina University in Newport, Rhode Island. The purpose of the program is to support international students who are currently enrolled in or would like to attend undergraduate programs in the United States. If you believe your students could benefit from this program, please share this information with them. The website has all the details regarding dates, fees, and requirements for admission: go.miis.edu/ice

Some of the program highlights are below:

- * Immersion environment where English is spoken 24 hours a day/7 days a week
- * Students live in residence halls on the beautiful campus of Salve Regina University <<http://www.salve.edu/>> in Newport, Rhode Island
- * Over 20 hours of instruction per week in English for academic purposes
- * Focused instruction on listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills and strategies
- * Content to build knowledge and understanding of U.S. history and culture
- * Life skills workshops that help make the most of the college experience
- * Access to campus resources, including the library, computing centers and recreational facilities
- * Co-curricular activities including field trips to Boston and New York as well as sporting, cultural and social events

Please note that students must submit a minimum TOEFL (500 paper-based or 61 internet-based) or IELTS score (5.0) for admission into the program.

If you have any questions regarding the program, please feel free to contact Patricia Szasz, the Director of Intensive English Programs, at patricia.szasz@miis.edu <<mailto:patricia.szasz@miis.edu>> or 831.647.3501.
